

DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL AND PREVENTIVE MEDICINE

SEMINAR SERIES: FALL 2003

12:00-1:00 p.m.

144 Farber Hall

Date	Name	Title
September
12	Jean Wactawski-Wende, Ph.D., Assistant Professor, Department of SPM	The WHI Memory Study
19	Severio Stranges, Ph.D., Research Instructor, Department of SPM	Liver Enzymes and Alcohol Consumption: Does Pattern Matter?
26	Jill Murphy, Ph.D., Assistant Professor, SUNY/Cortland	Reducing Barriers to Smoking Cessation in a Medicaid Population: The Medicaid Stop Smoking Intervention Study (MEDASSIST)
October
3	Elsa Strotmeyer, Ph.D., M.P.H., Postdoctoral Fellow, Department of Epidemiology University of Pittsburgh	Diabetes and Bone
10	Licia Iacoviello, M.D., Ph.D., Laboratory of Genetic & Environmental, Risk Factors for Thrombotic Disease, Santa Maria Imbara, Italy	Genetics of Cardiovascular Disease: Current Concepts and Future Perspectives
17	Edith Williams, M.S., Doctoral Student, Department of SPM	Where is the Kale? Environmental Racism and Availability of Fruits and Vegetables
24	CANCELLED
31	Enrique Schisterman, Ph.D., Investigator, Division of Epidemiology, Statistics & Prevention Research, NICHHD	Methodological Issues in the Analysis of PCB Data
November
7	Heather Ochs, Doctoral Student, Department of SPM	Pulmonary Function and Insulin Resistance
14	Faculty Presentations
21	Christine Ambrosone, Ph.D., Chair, Division of Epidemiology, Department of Cancer Prevention & Population Sciences, Roswell Park Cancer Institute	Effects of Genetic Variability on Cancer Treatment Outcomes
December
5	Carlos Crespo, Ph.D., Associate Professor, Department of SPM and Peggy Bertram, Ph.D., Adjunct Assistant Professor, African-American Studies, SUNY/Buffalo	Community Health Research